Board Convened November 8 At Worcester

"HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN" ... "CASEY'S AT BAT" ... BUT HE WON'T STRIKE OUT THIS TIME UP

Under date of November 8 The Octofoil received a mighty nice letter signed by six mighty fine guys and gals. Their names and telephone numbers will be found listed below. They're anxious to contact any former Ninth men in the Greater Detroit area. The letter bore a return address to Joe Casey, 5415 Joy Rd., Detroit 4, Mich. It's like old times to begin receiving letters from those Detroit people—and especially to know Casey is back in the ball game. He was one of the spark plugs in the Motor City Chapter a few years ago. Among the nice things written in the letter and appreciated by The Octofoil and the 1958 Columbus Convention Committee was the following comment: "We guess the Columbus Convention must have made sure that the 'girls' were given the V.I.P. treatment—for the wives are doing quite a bit of talking about what fun, and all the nice people who were there."

It's a cinch bet this Detroit project will be a big success—when these live-wire wives make up their mind that there's going to an aggressive Chapter in Detroit—and some good times will be in the offing for all before many moons. Their message follows:

TO ALL MICHIGAN MEMBERS and/or FORMER MEMBERS:

All Michigan members and former members of the Greater Detroit Chapter—How have you been?

A group of Detroit members who attended the Columbus Convention have become excited about reviving the Greater Detroit Chapter.

So—A few words to let you know that a few members are now dusting off the "Welcome" mat—and looking for a meeting place.

Just Telephone FLORENCE and BOB DeSANDY (PR. 7-5353), or ELLEN and AL YOCKEY (VE. 9-6865), or BETTY and BOB RUMENAPP (PR. 1-2999; PR. 6-0649) to say hello and tell us how you are, and that you also are excited about meeting soon—AGAIN in Detroit!

PRESENTATION OF COLORS THRILLED EVERYONE

The snappy color guard brought into Columbus for the annual parade during the 13th 9th Infantry Division Association Reunion, was a most impressive sight. The Fort Carson G.I.s added much dignity to the occasion. Many "old" Ninth men just stood in silent reverence—too choked up with emotion to say anything.

HIS HONOR, MAYOR ED BAILEY, DEMOPOLIS, ALA. LOOKING FOR FORMER 39TH MEN IN THAT AREA

The exacting duties of being mayor of Demopolis, Ala. hasn't interfered with the interest a former 39th Inf. Captain has in the 9th Infantry Division Association. Former Captain Edward B. Bailey is now mayor of that thriving Southern metropolis.

He has taken time out to write The Octofoil several interesting letters in recent weeks. He is particularly anxious to hear from any former 9th men now living in that area.

Art Schmidt had sent The Octofoil a letter he received June 24, while in a VA hospital from Holt Rast, Box 1491, Birmingham, Ala.; Holt is now a member of the General Assembly of Alabama, representing that great steel center of Vulcan statue fame.

This information has been passed on to Mayor Bailey. And Representative Rast, who was a former Division headquarters G.I., mentioned the whereabouts of Preston Stillings. His address is now 1105 Novis St., Mobile, Ala., down in the Satsuma sector of Alabama.

Mayor Bailey is anxious to make connections so as to get some 16 mm. films for a showing to his Alabama townspeople and convince them had it not been for the Ninth Infantry Division's action while in combat—those Alabama people with natives of the other 48 states would be goose-stepping today.

He has written to Gen. Harry P. Storke, Public Relations, Pentagon, and the General Tire Co., regarding the Navy Log TV show they put on about two years ago that played up Col. "Paddy" Flint and the 39th.

Any member able to tip off this enthusiastic former 39th man as to the whereabouts of some interesting films showing a bit of 9th action should contact him.

BUCKEYE INVITES FORMER NINTH MEN TO VISIT HIM IN MANSFIELD

C. M. McCormick, Jr., 124 N. Weldon Ave., Mansfield, O., is operating a filling station at the corner of 4th and Mulberry Sts., Mansfield. Mac was with Anti-Tank, 39th. He's now a paid-up member for the next three years and wants someone to send him Gustav Elymann's address.

Top "Brass" Extends Holiday Greetings

Before another issue of The Octofoil the 1958 Christmas holiday season will be history.

In behalf of all the officers, Board of Governors and editor of The Octofoil, each and every former Ninth Infantry Division man and his family are extended most sincere holiday greetings during this Yuletide season of 1958. And may the year 1959 bring prosperity, joy and happiness to those members and their families—who have earned and so richly deserve much joy and contentment with a prosperous life.

BOARD WILL CONVENE NEXT IN PITTSBURGH; DATE TO BE PRINTED IN OCTOFOIL SOON

The next meeting of the Board of Governors will be held in Pittsburgh, Pa. The exact date will be announced later.

A reasonable length of time will be granted those former Association members to reactivate the militant Ninth Infantry Division Association Chapter that Pittsburgh boasted of at one time. Failure on their part to have this Chapter operating smoothly again when the Board meets will be a big disappointment to many.

It is hoped that Mike Puzak will snap to and use some of his ingenuity in getting the Pittsburgh chapter to functioning again as it should. Puzak was the first secretary-treasurer of the Association. It is true enough, he and Rose Mary have had their hands full during the recent years getting their offsprings of "pretty little Pollocks" off to a good start. Some of the youngsters should be old enough now to help the "old man" get to "flying right" again.

Puzak's family still operate a fine restaurant and tavern out on Second Ave., and will accept Mike's IOU—so if other former Ninth men want to slip into Pittsburgh during the next Board meeting, chow requirements, and beverages should be no problem at all. Maybe Tom Gray can be shanghaied out of Massachusetts for a visit back home to Pittsburgh.

There's still a pawnshop around the corner in Pittsburgh, P-A, for the benefit of any who might worry about getting stranded and have to wander through those mountainous Pittsburgh streets indefinitely.

ANOTHER TAX EXEMPTION ARRIVES AT HOME OF THE BILL MAUSERS

Bill and Dot Mouser, along with Billy and Barby, live at 17616 E. Park Dr., Cleveland 19, O. Now they have to make room for Robert Kent Mouser, who was born Oct. 2, 1958. A unique announcement was sent The Octofoil announcing Bob's weight as 8 lbs. 8 oz., and approximately 20 in. height. Bill, Sr. and Billy made page 1 in the Columbus (O.) papers as two of the outstanding marchers in the parade held in the Ohio City during the 1958 Reunion.

IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD FOLLOWING DAY; TRANSCRIPTION OF BOARD SESSION BEING PROCESSED FOR PUBLICATION

According to telephone reports made to The Octofoil by Glenn O. Moore, Board of Governors member from Columbus (O.) Chapter, the Memorial Services held in Worcester, Mass., on Sunday, November 9, 1958, were most impressive.

Stanley Cohen, National Secretary, also prepared a written report on both the Memorial Services and the Board meeting. A complete transcription of the Board meeting will be forthcoming at a later date. (As per permission from the United States Post Office Department, there will not be another issue of The Octofoil until early in February, 1959.) The cooperation of both Messrs. Moore and Cohen is appreciated. A continuation of such cooperation on the part of the other members will result in a bigger and better Octofoil and with an increased membership, which is necessary for the Association's preservation. It is regrettable that space limitation precludes the possibility of printing in full the reports that have been submitted on these impressive and worthwhile events held in Worcester. A few highlights will be noted in paragraphs that are to follow.

On Saturday night, Nov. 8 all of Worcester, Mass. was playing host to the men and their ladies of the Ninth Infantry Division Assn. The church was filled with gay participants enjoying a night at "Connors Coffee Shoppe."

SAD NEWS

The many friends of Earl Cunningham were saddened to learn of his death during the year. He was a former Hqtrs. 1st Bn., 47th man.

Walter Pierce, New Castle, Delaware attended the services. He is a salesmanager for Gamberton Motor Co., New Castle. He and Etta have three youngsters, Sandra Lee, 14; Skipper, 11, and Bonnie, 12.

Ken Gross, Div. Arty., and family just returned from a trip through Portugal, Spain and Italy. They had an audience with the Pope.

Joseph Dreton, 225 Locust Ave., Babylon, L. I., made the Worcester pilgrimage for the first time and really enjoyed the activities. Joe was Gen. Eddy's bodyguard while in Africa. Joe is an electrician and is mighty proud of Joan 11, and Christine, 8.

Wm. Bomgiorno, Waltham St., in Lexington, Mass., proudly boasts of 17 years of happy married life to the one and only Elna.

Joe Albanese, 47th man from way back, announces Pauline Louise is now one year old.

Bernard Campbell claims he was unable to attend the Worcester services because he could get no one to milk his cows while he was away.

Julius Ianotti and John O'Donnell are deserting bachelorhood.

Ken Howe was moaning the fact he hasn't located any 84th F.A. gang at recent conventions.

BAD WEATHER

The disagreeable weather of Sunday morning did not affect the number attending the service. The main auditorium was overflowing. Father Gerry Rowan (a former 9th M.P.), was assisting Father Connors. After the mass everyone had their coffee. The wonderful people of the Immaculate Conception Church were hosts and hostesses.

Some familiar faces noted mixing with old friends were Adam Yancowski, Robinson of Div. Arty; John Downey, Jersey City, and his family, and the Waldons. Waldon is warden of a certain establishment in Brookline, Conn., known far and near as the nicest looking vine covered jail anyone could imagine. Karl Malmstrom, a former Band member was there; a big group from the Engineers—just too many to mention—many with their wives and children.

UNIQUE GIFTS

At 1:00 P.M. the crowd of 315 people gathered at the Prescott Restaurant. The main speaker was Bishop Wright. He welcomed the group and kiddingly criticized Father Connors.

Some of the other speakers were: Monsignor Sullivan, Frank Wade, Association president; Dr. Joseph O'Connor, Dan Quinn, Chairman of the New York Convention Committee; and Father McCarron.

The truly fine renditions from the church choir was enjoyed to the nth degree by everyone. Five gifts were distributed after the entertainment—the winners: Glenn O. Moore, Ann McLaughlin, Tony Madonna, Joe Lynch and Dom Marone. The gifts were something to behold. They flew all about, crawled on tables, scared the winners but did create a flavor of frivolity to the occasion.

The last speaker was the city's mayor, Mr. McGrath.

Around 4 P.M. the visitors began bidding farewells. Another Memorial Mass was now history. But fond memories will always linger with those who attended.

Just to list a few of those who were in attendance the following are mentioned: Russ, Maurer, 2261 W. Belmont St., Camden, N. J.; Sylvan Rose, 125 State Rd., N. Dartmouth, Mass.; George Swanson, 41 Pine St., New Haven, Conn.; Jas. McLaughlin, 3 Schlager Ave., W. Quincy, Mass.; Henry Santos, 253 Bourne Ave., Boston, Mass.; Geo. Levison, 38 Aquidneck Ave., Portsmouth, R. I.; Evangelus Pernokas, 176 Salem St., Woburn, Mass.; Henry Boking, 7 Prospect St., Hatfield, Mass.; Bill Cwill, Babylon, N. Y.; Frank Possiadlo, 21 Cross St., Fisherville, Mass.; Dominick DiSimone, 15 Cross St., Worcester; Louis DiFalco, 6 Mountain Rd., Irvington, N. Y.; E. C. Roscoe, Storrs Rd., Storrs, Conn.; Lewis Orticari, Royalton, Vt.; Father Gerald Rowan, 1406 N. Erie, Wichita, Kans.; Frank Provost, 427 High St., Holyoke, Mass.; John Jagling, 41 Willow St., Reading, Mass.; Joseph Gurliaccio, 21 Lawrence St., No. Wilmington, Mass.; Nate Balich, 128 N. Road St., N. Reading, Mass.; Chas. Lewis, 143 Fuller St., Brookline, Mass.; Ronald Murphy, 44 Strawberry Lane, Scituate, Mass.; Ed McGrath, 99 Edward Rd., Greenharbor, Mass. Leo Stier, 381 Huron Ave., Cambridge, Mass.; John McAdams, 20 Poole Circle, Holbrook, Mass.; Francis Maher, 14 Davenport, Worcester, Mass.; and Mortellit Nunzio, 12 Hathaway, No. Wilmington, Mass.

Among the New York Chapter members attending were: Messrs. Gatto, Quinn, Fazio, Egan, Almassy, the McInerneys, Miele and Apar.

Father Connors' letter sent out on October 20, to some 900 people was a masterpiece. Just to quote a few words will give some idea of why each year more and more former 9th men and the Gold Star parents attend these services. Father Connors' opening paragraph reads:

"Dear Friends: Again the time ap-

REPORT ON TWO BOARD MEETINGS AND REUNION HELD IN COLUMBUS

Because the Octofoil budget for the ensuing fiscal year is so much below the amount of money all previous Board of Governors have allowed, the editor has already made arrangements to be cared for in an institution dedicated to rehabilitation of individuals who are driven insane. Much important data pertaining to the two Board meetings held in Columbus during the 13th Annual Reunion, of necessity, is having to be deleted from the Octofoil columns at this time. The part that is being printed will be noted below in much smaller type than the other text matter, hoping thereby to get a few more items covered.

MINUTES OF 48TH MEETING BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The 48th meeting of the Board of Governors was called to order at 3:30 P.M., July 31, 1958, at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in Columbus, Ohio.

After discussion of the insurance plan it was decided that this discussion should be reopened at the next board of governors meeting.

There being no further business to be brought before this Board, it was adjourned at 6:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted by STANLEY COHEN, Natl. Secy.

MINUTES OF THE 13TH ANNUAL MEETING, 9TH INF. DIV. ASSN.

August 1, 1958.

At 11:35 A.M., President John Clouser called the meeting to order. There were forty-four (44) members present, which constituted a quorum.

Five committees were selected: Chapter, Finance, Nominating, Newspaper and Membership.

After alternate delegates were appointed to committees, the meeting was adjourned until 2:00 P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Fifty-two members were present, constituting a quorum.

President Clouser called on Secretary Stanley Cohen to read the minutes of the 12th Annual Reunion. Motion by Dick Macomber, seconded by Mike Mysick to approve minutes of the 12th annual meeting as read and place same on file. Motion carried.

President called on Secretary Cohen to report on financial condition of the association. For period of July 1, 1957 to June 30, 1958, total income reported: $3,536.35—total expense $5,819.53. Total deficit for the period ended June 30, 1958, $2,283.18. Moved by Richard Macomber, seconded by Mike Mysick to accept the financial report as read and place same on file. Motion carried.

Glenn O. Moore expressed thanks to all the members attending the 13th annual reunion, also expressed appreciation to all the Columbus Chapter members who had helped put the program over.

Moved by Mike Mysick, seconded by Tony Mickle that members of the association hereby ratify and approve the disbursements made to date from the capital fund in the total amount of $5,636.76. The motion was adopted.

President Clouser called on the Chapter Committee for a report.

Mike Misch, chairman, announced members of the committee were: Max Umansky, New York; Frank Ozart, Chicago; Tony Mickle, District of Columbia, and Jim Bruno, New York. The following matters were discussed:

1. Films: Each local chapter Secretary should contact their local Army base or recruiting office and inquire about a directory list of available films for meetings.

2. Each chapter should have a lawn party or picnic on its agenda.

3. The chapters should reactivate their ladies' auxiliary groups.

4. Each chapter should have a local list of names of former members in their chapter area. These names should be forwarded to National, who should then distribute these to all active chapter members to contact for local chapter membership.

5. Have new chapters started where it is possible.

6. Each local secretary should contact The Octofoil about their meetings and all other affairs.

7. Each chapter should have dances and Christmas parties on its agenda.

8. Have members utilize The Octofoil to publicize the Octofoil insignia, and to display the Ninth Division Association in their windows of their stores and offices.

Use the Division history, "8 Stars to Victory" as an inducement to get new members.

Moved by Frank Wade, seconded by Dan Quinn to approve the report as read. Motion carried.

The president called on Herb Olsen, the Newspaper Committee chairman, to submit his report. Committee members were announced: Dominick Miele, J. Scully, Frank Russo, Charlie Warner and V. O'Geen, New York; Richard Schumann, Columbus; M. Belmonte, Chicago; V. Butswink, Philadelphia. Delegate at large member, B. White.

Comments were as follows: The Octofoil has a lack of information on picnics, dances and convention activities. In addition, the paper comes out too late or not at all. Not enough personal news from the chapters regarding new members, sickness, deaths and births. Present arrangement of photos and type not very economical. Present number of issues seems too many.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That present 10 issues be cut down to five (5) with eight (8) pages instead of present 4 pages.

2. That each chapter appoint a publicity officer to be responsible for local news and getting it to the Octofoil editor—such as deaths, sicknesses and births.

3. That paper get back to separate organization news, such as columns on 47th, 39th, 60th, etc.

4. That July issue print more information about forthcoming convention. Have a "Yes" or "No" box regarding convention attendance. This will enable convention committees to plan accordingly. A small map of the host city should be published in The Octofoil.

5. The editor should look into the possibility of a different printer to enhance the esthetic value of the paper, re: galley proofs, cuts, type, etc.

6. The editor should check with local chapters on names and meeting places as the present printing as it appears is not entirely correct.

Moved by Dick Macomber, seconded by Mike Mysick to submit the report to the Board of Governors for further consideration and action. Motion carried.

Dan Quinn reporting for the Membership Committee submitted the following:

1. Special service group to function at conventions.

2. Welcoming committee to function at conventions to help new men get around.

3. Future conventions should consider two-day conventions because of high tabs.

4. There should be more family activity in local chapters.

5. There should be more family activity at conventions.

6. Some consideration to be given to a Saturday night affair to take place after the banquet.

7. Board of Governors should have a watchdog committee set up for conventions.

Moved by Frank Wade, seconded by Frank Ozart to accept the report as read. Motion carried.

President Clouser called on Miscellaneous Committee Chairman Jack O'Shea for a report. The following members were announced as comprising this committee: New York, Charles Libretto; Western Pennsylvania, Bill Palady; Columbus, O.: Don Jewell, and Harry Orenstein, of New York.

Request from Fort Carson for permission to collect dues semi-annually ($2 each six months) as against the current $4 collection.

2. Reduce cost of "8 Stars to Victory" from $3.50 to $2.50, and the 60th History from $1 to $0.50.

3. If a new member sends an extra $1 he be given a copy of "8 Stars to Victory."

4. That chapter rebates be discontinued. After much discussion the above subjects were referred to the Board of Governors after the adoption of a motion made by Tony Mickle and seconded by Dan Quinn.

President Clouser called on the Finance Committee Chairman, George Apar, who announced the committee personnel as: Paul Clark, Chicago; John A. Delk, Robert Rumenapp, Lou Almassy, New York, and Frank Wade, District of Columbia.

The following budget was submitted:

Octofoil, $1500.00.
Postage, $350.00.
Office supplies and clerical help, $400.00.

Motion carried.

A motion made by Jim Bruno and seconded by Bud Reimer it was:

Voted to give the Board of Governors the authority to transfer an amount not exceeding $1,000 from the capital to the general fund if they deem it necessary and urgent.

The above may only be done by the unanimous approval of those present at a meeting of the Board of Governors for one (1) year only. Such to be considered as a loan. When money is available, (Continued on next page)

Stanley Cohen reported that several hotels were being considered for 1959 Convention headquarters—and a more detailed report will be submitted later.

CHRISTMAS PARTY
A committee was selected to plan for the annual Christmas party for the New York Chapter members' children. Art Schmidt is chairman. Other committee members include Danny Quinn, Irv Feinberg, Frank Fazio and Vince Guglielmino. A full report will be submitted by the committee later. "Delayed Action" Report From Members In Buffalo

Because of a mixup last month a letter from Robert Klumpp concerning the Buffalo Chapter wasn't published in The Octofoil.

Bob outlined some real energetic plans in an effort to arouse some of the former members in that area to get back in harness and help get the Buffalo Chapter back where it rightly belongs.

A few of the fighters to the last ditch with the old 9th Division up and at 'em spirit have promised Bob to go all out with him in making personal contacts and putting on a real campaign through the mail to all former Ninth Division men in the western part of New York State.

In years gone by one of the most interesting Chapter news letters to be printed each month in The Octofoil was forwarded from Buffalo. It Can Be Done again!

A Comprehensive Reunion Report Is Filed By Moore

Appearing before the Board meeting held in Worcester, Mass. Nov. 8 Glenn O. Moore, Board member and General Chairman of the 1958 Reunion Committee submitted a comprehensive report to the other members. Association officers have written very complimentary letters to The Octofoil concerning the report. In Moore's printed report each item of income and expense was itemized down to the fractional part of every penny. The Octofoil does not have the space to reprint that report in full. Only the totals are printed below. Registration was listed as:

Ohio, 92; Indiana 9; Illinois, 21; Michigan, 17; Tennessee, 4; North Carolina, 1; Florida, 1; Georgia, 1; Connecticut, 1; Maryland, 7; Washington, D. C., 3; Massachusetts, 5; Pennsylvania, 24; New Jersey, 14; New York, 29; Colorado, 9. Total—238.

DURING ART SCHMIDT'S ILLNESS HE HEARD FROM MANY FORMER BUDDIES IN THE NINTH DIVISION

Arthur R. Schmidt, 69-20 69th St., Glendale 27, N. Y., who, as president of Greater New York Chapter, did a marvelous job circularizing the roster of members previous to the 1958 Reunion. The lad got a bad break and was hospitalized during the Reunion, eventually having one of his legs amputated. Art's old buddies rose to the occasion and kept him well supplied with interesting letters. Many of those writing had not been heard from for a long time.

Among those writing Art were—John Clouser, Des Plaines, Ill., at the time President of the Association.

Another faithful writer was George Waldren, Box 342, Ben Lomond, California. George is anxious to hear from any former 9th men living in California. He was with 376th AA Bn., joining the outfit in England and remaining until a short time before the war ended. He is anxious to contact someone who was with him while attached to the 9th so as to be able to file certain claims with the VA. Waldren moved to Sunny California 3 years ago after having lived in Chicago the first 32 years of his life. He's married and has 3 girls and a boy. George is working with a rocket company as a liquid missile technician and claims to be working side by side with some of the Krauts who made life miserable for him during the war. He's decided since working with them, they aren't such bad Joes as he thought. Thanks to Art the lad is now a full-fledged member of the Association.

On Oct. 31 (the last letter from Art), he was progressing rapidly in learning to use his artificial leg and the medics felt sure he'd be out and shuffling around like nobody's business within a couple of weeks of that date.

Another letter written to Art was by a former 9th man confined to the same VA hospital, 408 First Avenue, New York 10, N. Y. Gerry Holman, who took Chenault's job as supply sergeant with the 15th Engrs. will be in the hospital several more months. He mentions Roger Marion, who was a Red Cross director while overseas, stops in weekly to see Holman. He'd appreciate a card from any of the old gang.

OBJECTS TO READERS DIGEST NOT GIVING 9TH DIVISION DUE CREDIT

William M. Krup, former 39th man, writes in to call attention to recent releases concerning an alleged history of D-Day, June 6, 1944, being prepared by Cornelius Ryan for publication in Reader's Digest and book form to coincide with the 15th anniversary of the event in 1959. Bill is rightfully teed off because again the 9th Infantry Division is deprived of being given its rightful place in D-Day activities. He requests that former 9th men write to Miss Frances Ward, Reader's Digest, 230 Park Ave., New York, N. Y. and protest this slighting of the 9th Division.

Basingstoke, England Folks Write to Taylor

J. T. Goulden and family still live on one of the roads about four miles south of Basingstoke, England. The Gouldens continue to write Wilton Taylor, former 47th man, now at Lost Hills, Calif., Stop 6, Star Route. They say Basingstoke is expanding in all directions, much on the order of our American towns. Taylor's brother, now in the Air Corps, is making a tour of the area with his family.

ACCIDENT
Lloyd Wofford, former Co. C, 15th Engrs, is now employed by General Petroleum at the Belridge Lease, northwest of Bakersfield, Calif., accidentally shot himself while cleaning a revolver this past summer. But he has entirely recovered. Lloyd sends best wishes to all former 9th men.

GERMAN CHILDREN SING
In Taylor's newsy notes he mentions the Oberkerchen, Germany Girls Choir, which recently appeared on Ed Sullivan's show. Their records are available. All former 47th men remember Oberkerchen, the choir's harmony has special significance for them.

VIC CAMPISI IS STILL IN THERE "PITCHING"

It is too often the case after a member of the Association serves a term on the Board he considers his bit has been performed and silently steals away into oblivion. This is not the case with Vic Campisi of the New England Chapter. Vic lives at 10 Lesley Ave., Somerville 44, Mass., and is a busy deputy tax collector. But never too busy to find time to listen to problems confronting the Association. "The Octofoil is in receipt of two most interesting and constructive letters from Campisi during the past month. He is the kind of member that will submit friendly criticism irrespective of who the criticism affects. For that reason his compliments regarding the last issue of The Octofoil are doubly appreciated.

The lad's knowledge of the problems confronting the Association is astounding. His background and experience places him in a sound position to be of invaluable aid to the incumbent officers, and especially the newly elected national treasurer, Tom Boyle, the two being in close personal contact one with the other. Some of the up-to-date business procedure that Treasurer Boyle is planning for the Association bids fair to being an invaluable assist to the overall Association picture.

Information and suggestions that Campisi forwarded after attending the Worcester Board meeting are appreciated by The Octofoil.

However, until some New England Chapter News starts coming to The Octofoil from the pen of Campisi he may be subject to some plain talk from this end of the line.

Some of Present-Day Ninth's Money As Bogus As What Old-Timers Were Paid With

All former Ninth Infantry Division men can vouch for the rapidity in which money paid them while in the service disappeared. It didn't seem to purchase any more than one could get with Confederate counterfeit money.

Now at Fort Carson when the G.I.s go into Colorado Springs they have to present a $1 bogus bill with every genuine bill spent, so the business institutions can determine how much or how little the Fort Carson Ninth Division men are helping the town's economy.

ARMY IS COPYING COL. PADDY FLINT'S ROUSING SLOGAN

Noting some news releases from Fort Monroe, Va., it was interesting to read that Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, Commanding General, U. S. Continental Army Command, was slated as one of the main speakers at the annual meeting of the Association of the U. S. Army, October 20 through October 22 in Washington. But the meeting's theme was: "The United States Army, Ready for Action—Any Kind, Any Time, Any Place."

Not enough difference from "Paddy" Flint's battle cry to keep a person from wondering why the Army had to rearrange the immortal Irishman's "theme."

A GIRLIE: The difference between facts and figures.

BILL THORNBY REMEMBERS SOME OF MOLLY'S ANTICS

William Thornby, former Co. F, 60th G.I., who left the outfit in Africa, is working as an operating engineer now and lives at 1436 Beach Ave., Bronx 6, N. Y. He is married and has five youngsters: Madeline 12, Theresa 11, James 8, Thomas 7, and William 6.

Bill sends regards to Earl Evans, Pop Krane and Joe Skertich. He would appreciate hearing from any of the old Co. F, 60th gang.

"MOLLIE" ARGUMENT

Quoting from one of Bill's letters the following is noted:

"Now, not that I want to get into this Mollie argument, but what a surprise to read about 'Mollie.' Before I forget it, if at all possible, I would certainly appreciate the issue of Octofoil where this article about Molotov first appeared. I can truthfully say I knew him. He and I were drafted from the New York area at the same time in January of 1941. I was in 'F' Co., and Mollie was in 'G' Co. We all called him Molotov but I don't know whether you people know it or not but his proper name was Earl J. Warner. This I have proof of, his picture is in the first 60th Infantry book that was published while we were doing our first year at Fort Bragg. He blew his top when anyone called him Earl. I remember him in the landings in Africa when we took this so-called French fort in Port Lyautey. 'Mollie' came out of the fort with a handsome Arab cloak on and his pockets full of French francs which were given away as souvenirs. He didn't know at the time the money was of any value. Character or otherwise he was really a good soldier but too reckless. As a matter of fact, when he was killed he owed money for fines received from being AWOL and court martials for disobeying orders.

"I've heard it mentioned when 5-Star Final was in its prime on radio, they did a show about Mollie. There was many a time I was in a dice game with him and he was always ready to gamble.

"In my opinion he is deserving of the praise that is being given him."

MEMORIAL SERVICES

proaches for our Annual Memorial Mass for the deceased men of the 9th Division. This occasion is for me a continual source of happiness and gratitude—that the men of the 9th Division remember their dead. And I know that this occasion must be for you, too, most impressive. For me the occasion of the Memorial Mass has a threefold objective. First of all, and principally, we remember our deceased, each one, in his own prayerful way. Secondly, we endeavor to bring some consolation to our Gold Star people. And, thirdly, the gathering helps to keep the old team together—as we pray together."

Immaculate Conception Church is located, very fittingly, at the beginning of Gold Star Boulevard, in the city of Worcester.
